

known as Link's ford, and running with the east bank of said river to the Frederick and Woodsborough turnpike bridge, over said river known as the Ceresville bridge; then with said Frederick and Woodsborough turnpike road to the place where said turnpike road intersects the Frederick and Libertytown turnpike road; then with the center of said Frederick and Libertytown turnpike road to the covered bridge over Israel's creek, known as Creamer's bridge; then with the west bank of said Israel's creek to the public road known as Johnson's lane; then with said public road to a point where the said public road intersects the public road known as the Ridge road, leading from Morgan's mill to the village of Mount Pleasant; then in a straight line to a point where the public road known as the Dutrow road intersects the public road known as Water street road; then with said Dutrow road to a point where said road intersects the public road leading from Libertytown to the Frederick and Woodsborough turnpike road known as the Middle road, being a point on the line of the Liberty District, or Election District No. 8; then with said Liberty and Mount Pleasant District line to a point on said line at the southeastern corner of James Boane's land; then with the Woodborough District line to a point where said line intersects the Bostian's Mill public road at a point near Charles Nolley's residence; then in a straight line from said public road to a point on the Woodsborough and Frederick turnpike road known as Smith's School House; then in a straight line from the place of beginning; the territory within these boundaries to be known as Walkersville District, or Election District No. —, as aforesaid. Its name.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the place of holding elections in said Walkersville District, or Election District No. —, shall be the village of Walkersville, of said district. Place of holding elections.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That there shall be appointed by the proper authorities for said district one justice of the peace and one constable, and also a register of voters and judges and clerks of election, as required by law in the case of the other election districts of Frederick County; and said register of voters, when duly appointed and qualified, is hereby authorized and empowered to transcribe into the books of registration of voters for said new election district all qualified voters within the boundaries thereof who may have been heretofore registered in the said respective election districts out of which said new election district has been formed. Appointment of district officers.